5 New Outdoor Bars and Beer Gardens in NYC

By James Mulcahy

Summer drinking season is upon us. We've already told you about the best rooftop watering holes, but today we're staying closer to the ground to scope out the city's new beer gardens and outdoor bars. Click through the slide show to see these must-try venues for imbibing, and take a look at a video of some sweet rooftop bars here.

Watermark Bar

The bi-level space is a short jaunt from the similar Beekman Beer Garden, which is run by the same team as this watering hole - the venue is part of the 2-mi.-long East River esplanade. The large bar has indoor and outdoor areas that provide views of the nearby seaport for visitors to soak up as they enjoy NY state craft beers and a menu of burgers and other pub grub. There's also a Cones Cafe on site that will serve ice cream for the kiddies who can't enjoy the brewskis just yet.
